

2012

2014

2015

2017

2022

July 2012 - September 2014 Lafarge Cement Syria paid out some $5.6 million to ISIS†.

April 7, 2014 Lafarge and Holcim announced a merger to create LafargeHolcim

October 2014

Lafarge had their intermediary sign an agreement terminating business with ISIS and backdate to August 18, 2014, just after UN Security Council resolution banning doing business with ISIS & ANF.†

July 10, 2015 Merger was completed  LafargeHolcim

September 2017

Lafarge executives are charged with paying the Islamic State group in Syria.

January 2022

Cowden Gravel & Ready Mix is acquired by Aggregate Industries, a subsidiary of LafargeHolcim in the United States

October 2022

Lafarge executives plead guilty providing material support to the Islamic State group in Syria, and agree to pay $778 million in fines.†

Multinational Conglomerate Hijacking Our Resources

Lafarge owns a cement plant 8.3 miles from the proposed quarry.

On any day during the week you can watch Cowden trucking materials to Canada.

There are no tariffs on aggregate materials.

licensed as
AIPNW Inc. & Stoneridge
604 827 197*

† Department of Justice, "Lafarge Pleads Guilty to Conspiring to Provide Material Support to Foreign Terrorist Organizations", October 18, 2022, <https://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/lafarge-pleads-guilty-conspiring-provide-material-support-foreign-terrorist-organizations>

* Washington State Business License Numbers